Please read and sign below:

1. I understand that the registration and supply fees must be paid in full through Brightwheel. I understand that these fees are non-refundable once my child has been placed in the program.

2. I understand that if my child is out of school due to illness, snow days, vacation or for unforeseen circumstances I am still responsible for my full tuition cost.

3. I understand that should it become necessary to withdraw my child from the ECP anytime between registration and the end of the school year, I will be responsible for giving a minimum two weeks' notice. The notice should be received in writing and provide the specific date of my child's last day of attendance. Otherwise, I will still be responsible for the next month's full tuition payment.
